

EMPLOYABILITY SURVEY REPORT 3 YEAR AFTER GRADUATION

MASTER'S PROGRAM IN CHEMISTRY

FACULTY OF MATHEMATICS AND NATURAL SCIENCES

UNIVERSITAS BENGKULU

1. The Waiting Period for the First Job

Our survey 1 year after graduation is three out of six graduates found employment immediately after graduation; it took them 0 months.

While, after 3 year graduation 62.5% graduates found employment immediately after graduation.

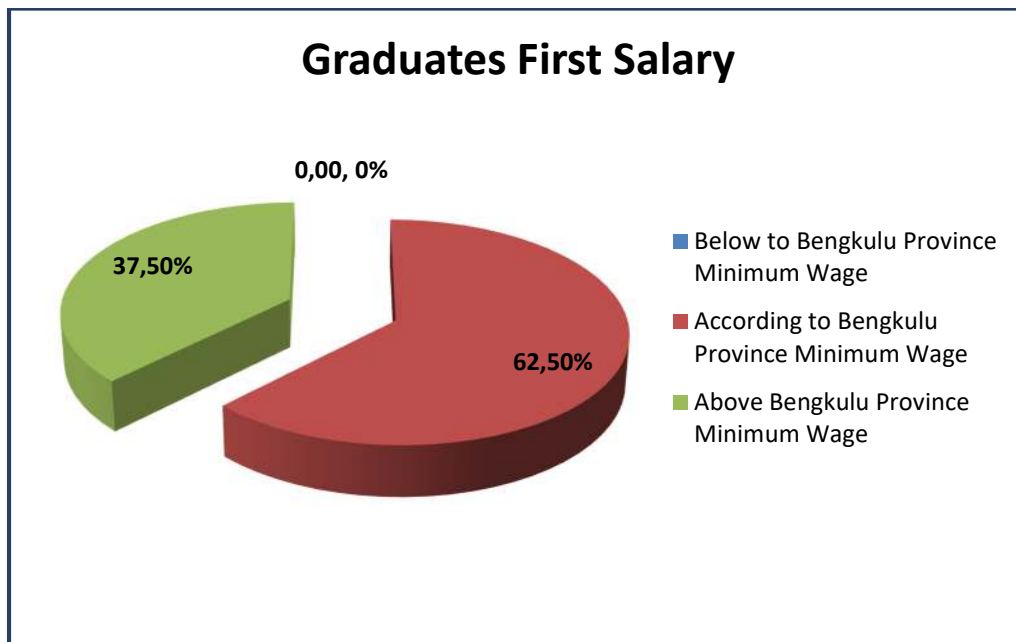

Waiting Time (months)	Total
	Alumni	Percentage
0	5	62.5
1 - 6	2	25
7 - 12	0	0
> 12	1	12.5

2. Graduates First Salary

The first salary of graduates is 62.5% according to the UMK of Bengkulu Province and 37.5% above Bengkulu Province minimum wage after 3 years graduation.

Graduates First Salary	Total
	Alumni	Percentage
Below to Bengkulu Province Minimum Wage	0	0.00
According to Bengkulu Province Minimum Wage	5	62.50
Above Bengkulu Province Minimum Wage	3	37.50

3. Type of Graduates Work

Graduating students now have access to a wider variety of professions than they did three years ago because they can go on to better positions thanks to their prior work experience.

One of the graduates works for a private company that handles chemicals, the environment, trash, and quality control.

Type of Graduates Work	Total
	Alumni	Percentage
Entrepreneur/self-employee	2	25
Government Employee	1	13
Lecturer/Teacher/Tutor	2	25
Researcher or Research Assistant	1	13
Private Employee	2	25

